THE 'TWEEN TOWERS

of 1942

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF HILLSDALE HIGH SCHOOL, HILLSDALE, MICHIGAN.

The Reason Why . . .

Everybody is interested in airplanes during these times, so the theme of the 1942 Tween Towers is built around the Army Air Force. The Tween Towers, starting out with the Air Force eagle on the cover, presents the Hillsdale Field, its Commanding Officers, its Flying Cadets, its Plebes, and their activities throughout the past year. We place this record before you for your inspection and enjoyment.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Mr. Baad, Jim McLain, Jim Baker,
Margaret Ann Drake, Peter Kreiter

Four long years ago, a green, bewildered, and mystified class stepped into the halls of Hillsdale High School to take a whack at a bit of higher education. Under the guiding hand of the Freshman advisor, Mr. Hohman, they rode out their first year. The students elected as officers: Larry Golding, president; Dave Hayes, vice-president; Norval Wasnick, secretary; and Gladys Austin, treasurer. Along with their regular parties, the "Frosh" had their part in the Sophomore Banquet with Bill Friedrichs as class speaker.

The next year they came rushing back for more. Heading the list of class members were Dave Hayes, president; Bill Friedrichs, vice-president; Pat Judge, secretary; Annette Chapman, treasurer. After Annette left, Dot Harvey took over her post. Mrs. Barron held a watchful eye over the group. The Sophs launched three successful parties and their Sophomore Banquet was the last banquet presented by the sophomores. The theme of the Banquet, with Marilyn Dow as chairman, was football. Bettie Card spoke for the class.

Nearer the climax of their high school career, they started the third year of their flight with Bill Friedrichs, president; Jim Baker, vice-president; Dick Smith, secretary; and Betty Rumsey, treasurer. Miss Monti advised this class of Juniors. Appointed as speaker at the Sophomore Spring Swing was Bob Gustafson. The Annual play, "Charlie's Aunt," was one of the most successful in H.H.S. history. Bettie Card very ably directed the Junior-Senior Reception using the theme, Iceland.

The class of 1942 took off to a smooth start this year with Jim Baker, president; Jim McLain, vice-president; Margaret Ann Drake, secretary; Peter Kreiter, treasurer; and Mr. Baad as advisor. In the fall, "Hobson's Choice" was presented for the class play. As speaker for the Sophomore Prom, the class chose Irene Angel, and with a very clever skit, the seniors took the prize for stunts. With the school-year almost to a close, the Seniors were guests at the Reception. They've finished one flight, but still have a historic one ahead.

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Janet Cook, Valerie Levy, Miss Monti, Marilyn Stiles, Thelma England.

The up-and-coming Class of '43 took off on their third year of high school by electing their class officers for the year: Janet Cook, president; Marilyn Stiles, vice-president; Valarie Levy, secretary; and Thelma England, treasurer. Miss Monti took over the advising post.

The first semester's offering of the Juniors consisted of their class party and some assemblies. With the coming of spring, the students' thoughts turned to producing the class play, "Young April." Emerging a little worn and torn, the Juniors popped into preparation of the Junior-Senior Reception, May 29th. Dick Ennis took the post of general chairman and saw to it that everything clicked. With a three-year approach, the Juniors are now ready for that last year and the commencement of '43.

SOPHOMORES

The class of '44 looks promising and by all appearances they have a brilliant career ahead of them. They gave 'er the gun this year by electing as officers the following: Robert Rick, president; Louise DeRose, vice-president; Sally Chapman, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Barron, as is the custom, was their class advisor.

Included in their regular activities this year were a couple of parties, and their one big contribution of the year to the school, the Navy Victory Prom. The reward for a lot of hard work was a very successful prom, under the co-chairmanship of Martha Thorne and Louise DeRose. The theme of the Prom was appropriately in step with the times. Here's to the sophomores with the best of luck in the two years to come.

FRESHMEN

With the sound of halting footsteps and the startled look in mystified eyes, a new class takes its place in high school history. The Freshmen started the first year of their four-year sojourn at Hillsdale High very appropriately with the elections. The class officers this year were: LaVerne Giaque, president; Robert Perrin, vice-president; John Devoe, secretary; and Norma Oberlin, treasurer. Miss Murray took over the wheel as advisor. They gave a couple of parties during the year, and we wish them the best of luck in all the activities of the years to come.

At Ease

TWEEN TOWERS

Again the Tween Towers Staff and reporters present the school paper and this annual for the students of Hillsdale High. Lots of kids have contributed to the success of the paper throughout the year and a great deal of midnight oil has been burned by the staff members to bring out a better sheet. In putting the annual together, the staff has tried to introduce some new ideas to make the annual "the best yet."

To all those who have helped "put the paper to bed," thanks and to those who were on the receiving end, we hope you liked it and the annual.

DEBATE

"Madame Chairman, ladies and gentlemen . . . ," so started the affirmative speeches of Lorabeth Moore, Richard Ennis, and Bettie Card. Doing the same on the negative side were Sally Chapman, Margaret French, and Lillian Sloan in the 1941 Debate Season. This season's proposition was: "Resolved: that every able-bodied male citizen of the United States should be required to have one year of military training before attaining the present draft age."

The teams from Hillsdale participated in the annual Twin Valley Tournament but fared badly, losing three out of four debates. They did redeem themselves, however, in the Michigan State College Debate League by arising in the wee small hours of the cold winter mornings and trekking to Lansing. Their team won five out of eight debates, thus gaining themselves the privilege of going to the state eliminations. Lillian Sloan, Margaret French, and Lorabeth Moore formed the team to go to Marshall. Though they lost to Marshall, the team earned another plaque to add to their collection.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves started right off this year with Margaret French, president; Jayne Brott, vice-president; Bettie Card, secretary; and Joyce Benedict, treasurer. Miss Laaninen and Miss Mary Smith acted as advisors. The girls began early on their year-long service of knitting for the Red Cross. Highlights of the first semester were the Freshman Girls Party, conference at Coldwater, a penny pot-luck, several speakers, and a Christmas party for unfortunate children. The club also had their annual father-daughter banquet and mother-daughter tea.

'Twas the night before vacation
In the old Study Hall,
Where many were dancing
At the G.R. - Hi-Y Ball.

Yes, indeed, everyone but St. Nick was at the Girl Reserve-Hi-Y Formal given just before Christmas. Almost hidden within a mammoth fireplace, DuWayne Loney and his orchestra furnished music for the dancing couples. Keeping in spirit with the season, the Study Hall was decorated with Christmas trees, boughs of holly, and a large revolving star in the center. Co-chairmen Pat Judge and Dick Smith really did well in supervising a bang-up affair.

The Hi-Y Club got off to a good start again this year with the first semester officers: Dave Hayes, president; Bill Friedrichs, vice-president; Lary Golding, secretary; Jim Baker, treasurer; and Dick Smith, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Samanen was again club advisor. High on the list of Hi-Y achievements during the first semester was an assembly "Cornzapopin" which started a school-wide paper drive. The Hi-Y also worked the score board at football games.

Highlight of the semester was the Girl Reserve-Hi-Y Formal, presented just before Christmas instead of in the second semester.

As the second semester came along, the officerships passed on to Bob Gustafson, president; Dick Ennis, vice-president; Dick Schmidt, secretary; Cleo Winchell, treasurer; and Bill Johnson, sergeant-at-arms. The club held a city-wide paper drive in which about seven tons of paper were collected. With the money earned from the paper drive, the club donated thirty-five dollars to the Athletic Fund.

BAND

The Band started off their 1941-42 season with a number of new drills for football games. One of their most startling ideas was the use of colored lights on their hats. At one of the night football games, the band marched on the field and formed a United States flag and the lights having been turned off, played our national anthem with their red, white and blue lights on. Another feature of the marching season was the Armistice Day Defense Parade. Several county bands and the students of Howe Military Academy cooperating with our band formed a delightful program of drills and then followed by a mile-long parade.

This spring the band led the Window Night Parade. In cooperation with the Civilian Defense committees, the band furnished music for several patriotic meetings during the winter and gave a concert on May 20th at the meeting held to arouse interest in the United Service Organization.

Along with the orchestra and chorus, the band presented their annual Christmas concert on December 23rd. The admission price raised the orchestra uniform fund sufficiently to purchase them. On April 10 the county band festival was held in Hillsdale and our band received a first division. A majority of the students in the county honor band, directed by Graham T. Overgard of Wayne University, were from Hillsdale and the solo chairs were occupied by our members. Having qualified in the county festival, the band began preparations for going to the State Music Festival in Ann Arbor on April 25. The band received a second division rating.

This year the fifty-six members of the band have again been ably directed by Mr. Robert Lint. Fortunately only seven members are graduating. To end their 1941-42 season, the band presented the commencement concert on June 10 with a group of novelty numbers and patriotic marches.

Orchids to the Orchestra! Mr. Lint has had a most successful season with this group, even to purchasing new uniforms and gaining first division rating at the State Music Festival.

The orchestra has had in mind for some time the uniforms that it wanted and with the cooperation of the band and chorus in the annual Christmas Concert on December 23, they were able to buy them. Since acquiring the uniforms the orchestra has appeared several times in public in the white coats with navy blue lapels and cuffs.

The orchestra furnished music for the Community and class plays and part in several other public performances. Highlight of the year, though, was the State Music Festival in Ann Arbor on April 25. All tuned up with their new uniforms aglitter, they took a first division rating.

"HOBSON'S CHOICE"

The Senior Class enacted "Hobson's Choice" as their annual play this year on December 5th. The three-act comedy was well received by an average house. The plot of the play is as follows:

Henry Hobson told his thirty-year-old daughter, Maggie, that she was too old to marry, but just to prove she wasn't she proposed to and married a low-spirited boot-maker. Maggie's two younger sisters were angry because they thought their chances of marrying into wealthy families were gone. Maggie's strong commanding way soon brought her husband beyond the level of the once-wealthy Mr. Hobson, and another feud started. The hubbub was soon calmed by Maggie and the final curtain came down on a more or less peaceful stage.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Samanen whose student assistant was Dot Duncan.

The Class of '43 brought their Junior Play, "Young April," to Hillsdale on the evening of May 1. For the second year, the Kiwanis Club sponsored the Junior Play.

The story, a continuation to "Growing Pains" which was presented here several years ago, deals with the life of Terry and George McIntyre in their "later adolescence." Terry has her beaux in rapid succession and almost marries the "wrong one" until her parents intervene. And George, just back from college, is sure he has found "the one," but after some adventures and jilting, he understands that the girl is just "a regular girl."

Throughout the play, Professor and Mrs. McIntyre discuss the problems of their children. The play, enlivened by frequent bits of humor, was a study of the inter-reactions of a parent and youngster during the tender, romantic, impulsive "Young April" age.

The production was under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Samanen with Pauline Kennedy as student director.

With Miss Mary Smith as advisor, the club members last fall elected officers as follows: Don Gemmill, president; Jean Gelenius, vice-president; Bettie Card, secretary; and Lillian Sloan, treasurer. For the initiation of the new members, the club held their annual banquet in the fall. The members also donated their efforts for the Athletic Fund by selling pop at the basketball tournament.

Again the F.F.A. of Hillsdale High carried through a successful year. Outstanding among the activities of the club was the participation in the state convention. The boys entered two contests; the dairy judging and the livestock judging.

The chapter's officers for the year were LaVere Kelley, president; John Fouty, vice-president; Roger Read, secretary; Don Keiser, treasurer; and Maurice Lovejoy, Watchdog. Mr. Rawson, agricultural instructor, advised the club.

The purpose behind the organization is to enable students to get a better understanding of commercial subjects. The club's membership is open to any student taking commercial subjects.

Officers for the year were Jean Porter, president; Mary Ziegler, vice-president; Jeanne Pulley, secretary; and Barbara Myers, treasurer. The club's faculty advisor is Mr. Smith.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls Athletic Association is one of the more active associations in Hillsdale High. Open to all girls, it offers a wide variety of activities which prove of interest to many types of girls. Awards are offered to those who fulfill certain requirements.

The club started the year off by election of officers with the returns as follows: Marilyn Stiles, president; Bettie Card, vice-president; Irene Angel, secretary; and Marilyn Jones, treasurer. Included in their activities this year were bowling, modern dancing, basketball, softball, badminton and tennis. The club this year has been under the direction of Miss Margaret Ann Lewis, the new gym teacher.

FORENSIC

The second semester marked the beginning of preparations for the spring speech contests. As the students chose their topics quickly, Miss Mary Smith was able to coach each participant individually. The types of speeches offered were oratory, oratorical declamation, dramatic declamation, and extemporaneous speaking.

After the contestants spoke in an assembly, the following were chosen to represent Hillsdale High School in the Twin Valley Speech Contest held here on April 9: Oratory, Janet Cook with "Hope of the Future," and Bettie Card with "Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness;" Oratorical declamation, Mary Louise Roper on "To the Women of America," by Queen Elizabeth of Fngland, and Ann Huggett on "The Boys and Girls of Michigan;" Dramatic declamation, Carol Jean Storer with "Mary Stuart." We had no contestant in the extemporaneous speaking contest.

INTRAMURAL DEBATE

The intramural debate program came to Hillsdale for its second season this year and was well received by the freshmen and sophomores who participated in it. Seven three-man teams were formed with each coached by a member of the varsity debate team and they debated on the proposition "Resolved: that a maximum price should be placed on all articles by the federal government for the duration of the war."

Eliminations began in the latter part of March and continued until the championship debate on April 29. The final teams were composed of Ross Neely, Richard Hinkle, and Ardis McNeil, coached by Lillian Sloan upholding the affirmative and Robert Caulkins, C. J. Howe, and John MacRitchie, coached by Lorabeth Moore on the negative.

After a close and exciting debate, the negative came through victorious, and in honor of this their names were engraved on the Intramural Championship Cup.

Except for two stumbling blocks, the Hornet football squad came through with a clean record last fall. At the start of the season, the boys shot off to a good start and they kept the spirit up throughout the contests. Coach Kuijala's first year with Hillsdale proved a successful one with plenty of show for his pains.

Special notice should be taken of Larry Golding and George Mains, both of whom received honorable mention from the state board.

BASKETBALL

The Hornets really had an off-season this year, winning only three of their fourteen scheduled basketball games. The team did, however, put forth a lot of effort and played many good games.

The district basketball tournament was held in Hillsdale this year in March and Hillsdale played host well though we lost to Adrian, 37-31. Coldwater won the Class B cup in this district.

Larry Golding, star forward, won high honors on the squad by tying for high points in T.V. games with Mitchill of Sturgis. Both boys tallied up 99 points.

GOLF

Again this year a cracking good Hornet golf team has come out with flying colors by trouncing almost every opposing team they've come against.

The first meet was with Coldwater, where our boys showed their high brand of playing by whipping the opponents 11-4. The next match was with Albion, where again our team proved its worth by taking the match 8-4. Albion came in for a second defeat with the score 7-4 in our favor.

Unluckily the Twin Valley Tournament held at Marshall turned out poorly for our team, with the boys gaining only sixth place. To end off their season the team went to Battle Creek to the State Regionals on May 23 but came home with a sixth place out of twelve schools.

TENNIS

A fast, consistent playing tennis squad has again chalked up a good record for H. H. S. with its ace Robert Watkins leading them on. Watkins has come up against some stiff competition but because of his superb playing, he captured the Twin Valley Tennis Singles Championship.

The first match of the season was held here against Albion in which we defeated them 3-2. The next game brought us against Sturgis and to a 3-2 victory. In the meet with Adrian, our netters came through by winning all three singles, though losing the doubles. In the Twin Valley Tournament, both Johnson and Watkins did spectacular playing, Watkins earning his championship. The day after the tourney, the team suffered its first defeat at the hands of Coldwater, when they lost two doubles and two singles. The last match with Lakeview had not been played when the annual went to press.

TRACK

For the first time in many a year, a track team was organized in H.H.S. under the direction of Coach Kuijala. Though the competition was stiff, the team did well for its first season.

The first run was a triangular affair held at Albion between Albion, Adrian, and Hillsdale. In this the Hornets came through with a fine score of 40 points, and in so doing nabbed a second place, Adrian taking first. Next came a meet concerning all A, B, C, and D Class Schools. This meet proved to be tough for our runners and they came in last in Class B. At the end of the season came the big Twin Valley Conference meet at Marshall. In this the boys missed getting second place by only four points when they received 24 and Albion 28. East Lansing won the meet.

With its first year behind it, the track team can look forward to more and better years of competition.

CHEER LEADERS

Three rousing cheers for Bettie and Irene! They have stood by us now for three years as a symbol of Hillsdale High spirit, pep and cheer. Although leading a cheering section is not a soft job, they have performed their duties so that we have been more than proud of them. Through football and basketball seasons they have appeared before us with a variety of costumes and have brought new cheers and new ways of cheering. It's with lots of thanks to the girls, that we say, "Three cheers for Bettie and Irene."

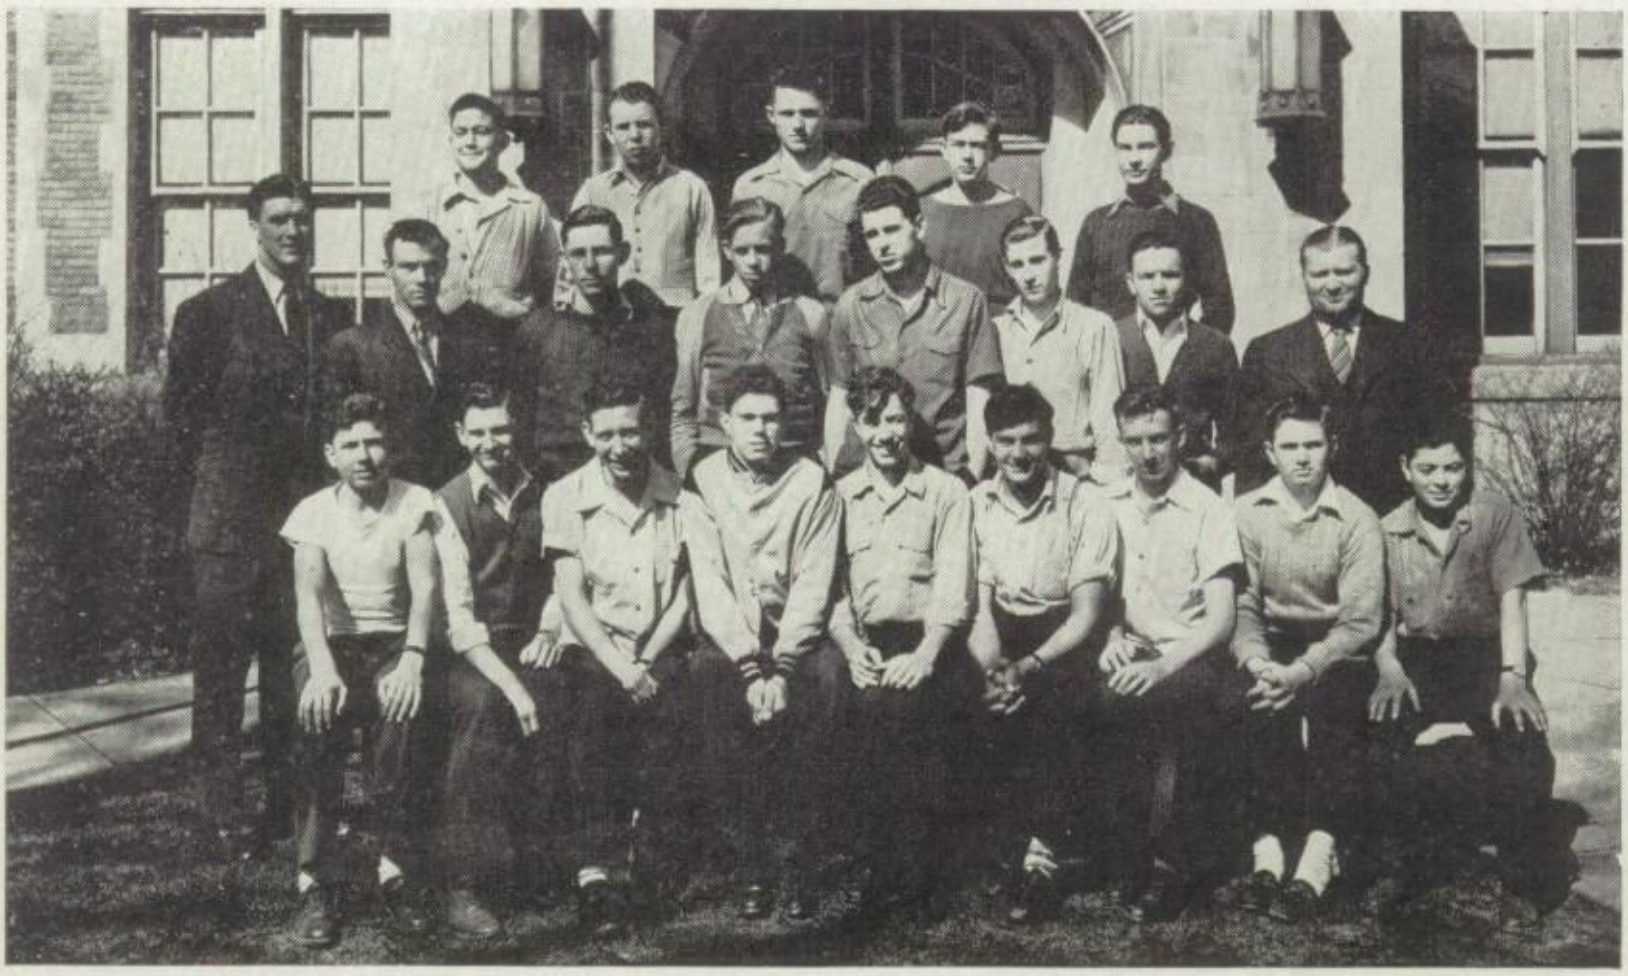
BASE BALL



Third Row:— T. Bates, L. Gustafson, C. Clark, R. Strauss, F. Dospoy.

After having a wonderful winning streak by taking their first three non-conference games, the 1942 Hornet baseball squad was hit by a tidal wave of disaster. The game which proved to be the begining of bad things was with Albion. From then on, things seemed to go the wrong way for the team.

Dick Smith and Harold Vaughn held the mound for the team and did very well in holding the opponents down to what runs they did manage to get. There were two games to be played off at the time the annual went to press, so the results of those games are not given here.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

Intramural basketball again played a big part in Hillsdale High's winter athletic program. The games, under the direction of Mr. Charles Boyse, were played at the Carl Bailey school. Gayle Lape was student manager of all leagues.

In the senior high league, Defay's Specials came out with top honors, winning eight and losing three games. The Blue Devils came second with seven wins and three losses; the Hi-Y and Wolverines were tied with five wins and four losses each; the Buckeyes came next with two wins and seven losses; and the Future Farmers with two wins and eight losses.

The Sneakers won the seventh grade league, the Redwings the eighth grade league, and the Gophers the ninth grade league.

B. Morlock, H. Whitson, D. Defay, A. Woodard.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls basketball intramurals afford an exciting outside activity to all girls interested in basketball. This year there were three teams competing, Freshman, Junior, and Senior. The captains were Bettie Card, Marilyn Jones, and Dorothy Lather respectively. The contest was held on afternoons after school during the regular basketball season. Each team competed in four games with scores as follows: Freshmen, won no games and lost four; Juniors, won three games and lost one; Seniors, won three games and lost one. In the final championship game the Juniors beat the Seniors, thus making them the girls basketball champs of the year.
